NOTE: Failure to return this form, your photo, and/or photo release form by the deadline specified may result in disqualification from the League finals. The information included on this form may be used in news releases and publications for the League finals.

IMPORTANT!! As part of your application to compete in the CUxEL Protégé Competition, this one-page essay (approx. 3-5 paragraphs) will be scored by chapter-level judges in combination with your oral presentation performance. Please make sure if you're writing by hand that it is legible, or you may type out your essay on a separate page or in the field below to submit with your application. Essays are due by the deadline determined by your chapter.

ESSAY PROMPT:

How can young professionals contribute meaningfully to the success and growth of their credit union and/or the credit union movement? Please provide 2-3 examples.

NOTE: Failure to return this form, your photo, and/or photo release form by the deadline specified may result in disqualification from the League finals. The information included on this form may be used in news releases and publications for the League finals.

Credit Union Consent Form

(For Credit Union Management Use Only)

We are pleased that your employee is applying to participate in the CUxEL Protégé Competition. Your signature below indicates your (you and the Credit Union) approval and understanding of the following requirements for: (1) your employee should he or she win at the chapter and finals levels; and (2) the potential financial support for travel and expenses that your credit union may provide during and/or after the competition.

Obligations for a Chapter-Level Protégé

- To travel and attend the competition finals.
- Take an exam and present his or her presentation at the finals competition.
- Optional: All Protégé contestants, with approval from their supervisors, have the opportunity to participate in the post-competition CUxEL Mentor Program.

Obligations for the 2025-2026 CUxEL Protégé

- The winner of the final's competition will have a position on the CUxEL Council. His or her responsibilities, coordinated by CUxEL, may include:
 - Presentations at various credit union chapters on his or her background, experience, CUxEL, and the Protégé programs;
 - Assist in facilitating CUxEL events; and/or
 - Participation in the CCUL LAUNCH Conference the following year (to pass on the torch).
- Immediate benefit to the 2026 CUxEL Protégé and the two runners-up is a selection of one of the following developmental scholarships.
 - Southeast CUNA Management School – One – year registration, valued at more than $2,200 (requires commitment to three-year program)
 - CCUL Hike the Hill (Washington, DC) – Full participation including airfare and lodging, valued at $1,100
 - 8 sessions TalentGuided Professional Coaching with coach of your choice – subject to availability (valued at $1,400)
 - Principles & Philosophy Conference + Webinar Voucher – Includes conference tuition, two nights lodging, meals, and a $600 webinar voucher (total value around $1,300).

Credit Union Financial Responsibilities

Credit union chapters sending a finalist to the dual-state competition during the Carolinas Credit Union League's LAUNCH Conference are predominately responsible for costs related to conference registration, hotel accommodations, and traveling expenses (or stipend). However, because chapter budgets vary across the Carolinas, sponsor credit unions are encouraged to work with your chapter to support the cost of sending your candidate to the finals.
